NURSES: IS YOUR PRACTICE AT RISK?

Health Care is evolving with technology and innovation, customer transparency, resource constraints and regulatory requirements. These forces increase the demands on the professional nurse. This program aims to explore the practice arena and its potential for legal exposure.

Objectives:

At the end of this program the participant will:

- Develop heightened awareness of aspects of nursing practice that may lead to liability.
- Discuss the legal implications of nursing documentation and information posted on a social media.
- Analyze current multifaceted approach to reducing medication errors.
